

Sunday, June 2

Adaptive Concert

with

John Kofi Dapaah

Dimanche 2 juin

Concert adaptif

avec

John Kofi Dapaah

Presented by | Présenté par
Ottawa Chamberfest & Lotus Centre for Music Education

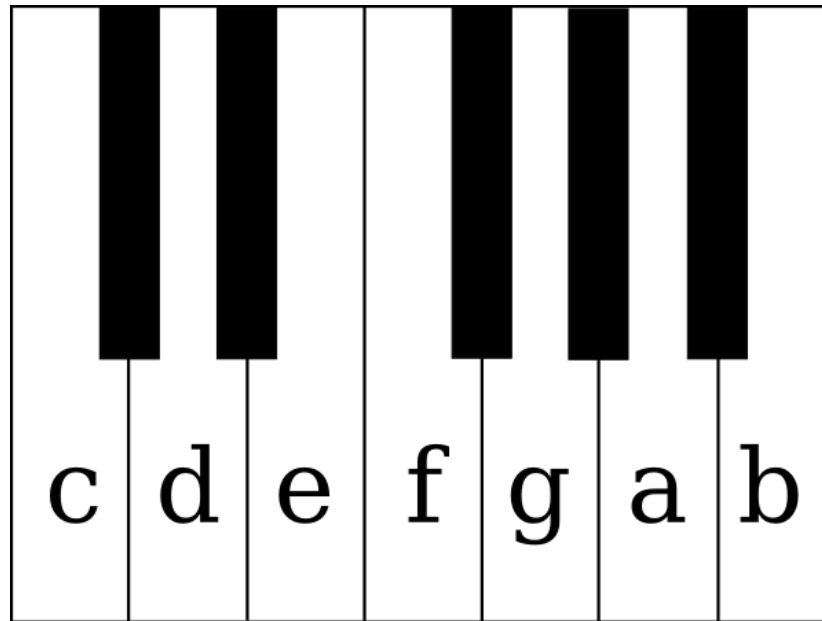

John Kofi Dapaah, piano

Thank you | Merci

John plays the piano.

A piano has 88 keys. Every key has a name, like A, B, C or D!

Look at the names of these piano keys:

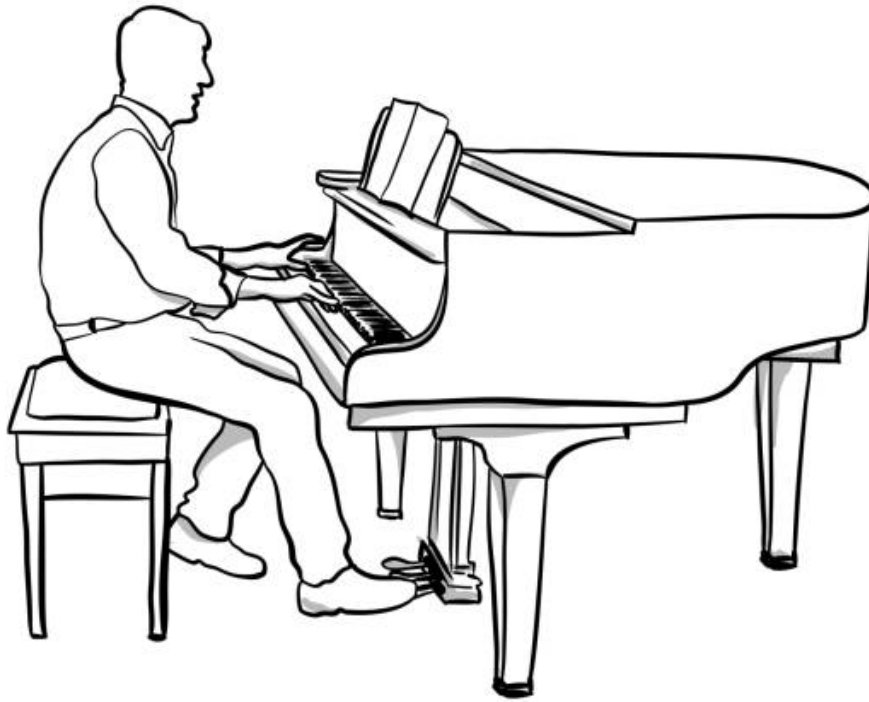

Feel free to colour these keys with your favourite colours!

What do you think of when you hear the music?

Do you see pictures or colours?

Add some colours to the picture. Add yourself or a friend, if you like.

Have you ever heard of Johann Sebastian Bach?

He was a German man who lived a very long time ago (1685 – 1750).

He wrote some of the most famous music for piano ever!
You might have even heard his very spooooky Toccata in D Minor.
Do you know any piano pieces?

Meet Florence Price

Hi Florence!

Hi everybody!

Florence didn't live as long ago as J. S. Bach. She wrote music in the United States in the 20th century.

Florence Price was the first African-American woman to have her music played by a symphony orchestra!

Look at all the instruments in an orchestra!
Add some colour if you like.

What is Jazz?!

J.S. Bach and Florence Price wrote classical music. Today, John will also play some jazz tunes...

But what is jazz?

Jazz comes from African-American communities in the USA in the early part of the 20th century.

They took familiar tunes and made them fresh. They added cool beats, new rhythms, and even new harmonies!

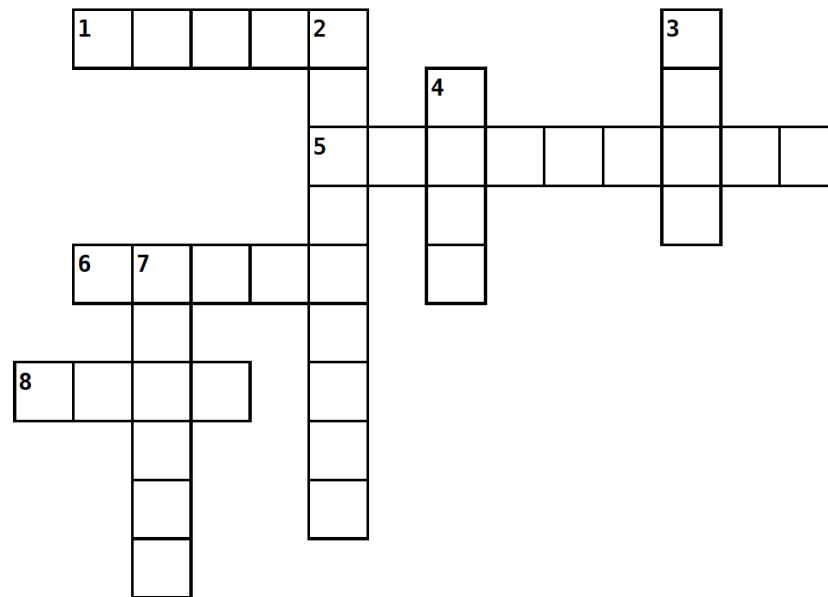

What does jazz sound like to you?

Add some colour to these pictures and add your own too!

Today's Musical Crossword

Across

- 1. The big keyboard instrument that John plays
- 5. The kind of music that Mozart and Beethoven wrote
- 6. First woman to have her music played by a symphony orchestra
- 8. The big keyboard instrument has 88 of these

Down

2. A big group of musicians who play all together
3. Very famous guy who wrote lots of piano music
4. A newer kind of music from America
7. Another word for the beats in music