The Nicole Senécal Emerging Artist Award recognizes an exceptional graduating student from the University of Ottawa's School of Music on the cusp of a professional career. This year, the award recipient is pianist Alexander Merpaw, who studies under David Jalbert. Alexander plans to participate in multiple renowned international competitions this coming year – catch him in our local arena before he takes off!

This concert and this prize are presented with the generous support of Nicole Senécal, and in partnership with the University of Ottawa Music Department.
